Terms and Conditions

- Cabin rates shown are per person and double occupancy is required. Rates include port charges and taxes. Rates do NOT include gratuities of $10.00 per day per person; transportation to and from Port Canaveral, Florida; parking at Port Canaveral ($12.00/day); and travel insurance.
- All cruise deposits for this group cruise will become non-fundable as of November 1, 2007. AREA recommends that you purchase travel insurance within 15 days of your initial deposit to receive the maximum benefits.
- The United States government requires all passengers to have valid and current passports for this cruise.
- USPAP Course – the AQB 7-hr National USPAP Update Course will be presented by America's Real Estate Academy, Inc. (AREA). AREA is a licensed real estate course provider in Georgia and Florida. The instructor will be an AQB Certified USPAP Instructor. Each state has different rules and regulations. You should refer to your state's Appraisers Board if you have any question that AREA's presentation of this course will satisfy your state's USPAP CE requirements.
- The 7-hr National USPAP Update Course shall be presented onboard the Carnival Glory in two parts. The first part will be from 8:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on Sunday May 4th and the second part will be from 8:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on Thursday, May 8th. Both of those days are entirely at sea. A notice will be delivered to your cabin announcing the onboard location for the presentation. You must be present the entire time on both days to receive credit for the course – no partial credit will be awarded. Completion certificates shall be provided for submission to appropriate state licensing boards if applicable.
