

APPEALING PROPERTY TAXES

Market instability means that even more properties than usual will be over valued by local governments. Appealing property taxes is great source of business for appraisers. This course will review property taxes and assessments, grounds and timing for appeal, choices for appealing property taxes, the hearing process and how to prepare for the hearing with convincing support for your value conclusion.

Course qualifies for:

- 3.5 hours of appraisal and/or real estate continuing education credit for license renewal, no exam required
